

Greetings from President Kenji Sugibayashi

On April 1, 2017, I was appointed President of Josai International University.

I will continue my commitment to the development of Josai International University and the local community while succeeding founder Mikio Mizuta's spiritual legacy "character building through learning" and his dedication to education.

I sincerely thank you for your continued support.

Kenji Sugibayashi

President

Josai International University