Graduate School of International Administration's Master Program is an international course that answers the needs of our contemporary society by training business as well as public administrators.

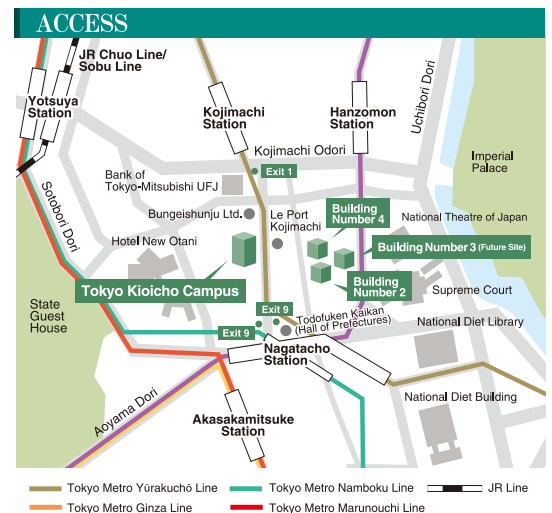

- Classes are held in our modern campus located in Kioicho (Chiyoda-ku).
- Classes are mainly held at times convenient for persons already working –during evenings and on Saturdays.
- In order to promote internationalization, students can complete this program entirely in English.

Support programs offered

- Women Leader Scholarship (Noriko Mizuta Scholarship).
- Shunpei Yamazaki Scholarship.
- Work-study Program.
- Teaching Assistantships.
- Tax breaks for international students.
