

JIU Media Faculty Alumna Wins Best Makeup at the Los Angeles Film Awards

Kao Miyamoto, a graduate of Josai International University, Faculty of Media Studies, has won the Best Makeup award at the Los Angeles Film Awards 2018 with the film Kommando 1944. She worked as a professional makeup artist.

While at JIU, Miyamoto had the opportunity to study at a U.S university for one year through our study abroad program. After graduation in 2016, she departed alone for Hollywood, aiming to become a makeup artist in the U.S.

The film revolves around a Japanese-American soldier who became a prisoner of the German Army in 1944. Miyamoto created realistic makeup for the film similar to that of Darkest Hour.
