

Academic Year 2026: Japanese Language Course Orientation

The following Japanese language courses are intended for students who have not previously studied Japanese or whose Japanese proficiency level has been classified as FOJC.

Students placed at the FOJC level may register for the courses listed below. Registration codes vary by department, so please check the materials provided by your department.

【Note】

1. Detailed information is also available on the university website.
2. Please refer to the Student Handbook (Gakusei Binran) for information about courses offered in your department. If you are unsure about the number of credits you are required to take, please consult your academic advisor.
3. The administrative office of your department will explain the procedures for course registration.
4. Courses that meet two or four times per week must be registered for in full. Partial registration for only some sessions is not permitted.

S1 refers to the first quarter, S2 to the second quarter, F1 to the third quarter, and F2 to the fourth quarter.*

If you feel that a class is too difficult or too easy, you may change your class. Please consult your instructor after attending the first one or two classes.*
