UNIVERSITY OF SZEGED

Two-Week Course
July 27-August 10, 2014.

The Hungarian and Central European International Studies Center of the University of Szeged calls for application to the twelfth Summer University in Hungarian Studies and Language. The program consists of a four-week and a two-week course. We usually have 50-60 students from 15-20 different countries while running language groups on five different levels.

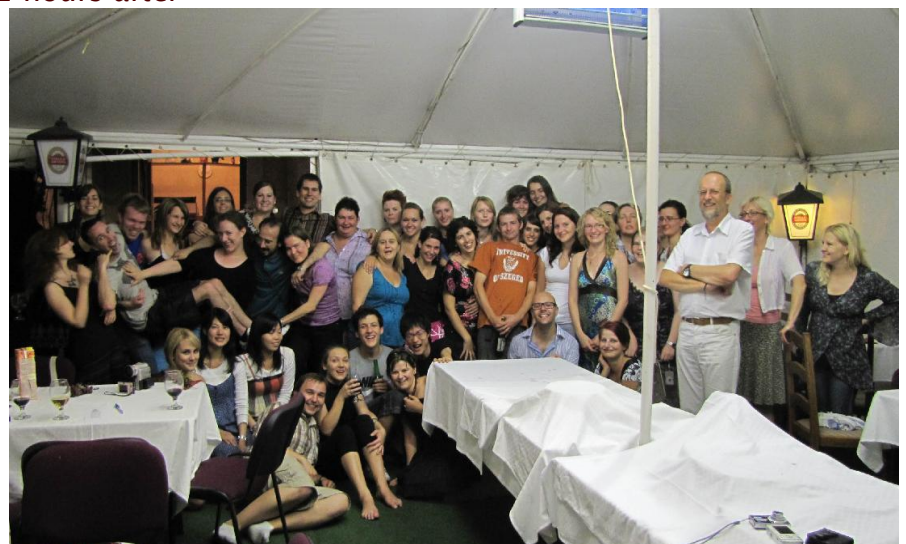

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

The four-week program includes language learning on various levels, cultural exposure in combination with academic classes, entertainment and recreational programs as well as regular contact with Hungarian language partners. There is also a possibility to choose a four-week module. We start beginner courses only in the first half of the program! The workload equals 6 ECTS credits. The main components of the program are as follows:

Hungarian as a foreign language (HFL) - courses at various levels (beginner, lower, upper intermediate and advanced - dependent upon a placement test). Language groups are always kept below 15. The language component includes 4 hours a day in the morning with professional HFL teachers plus 2 hours after-noon practice with Hungarian language partners.

Hungarian Studies in an European Context (HS) - these lectures and seminars cover Hungarian society, history, literature, art, film, linguistics, economics, geography and music (2 hours every day) and are offered both in English and Hungarian. The instructors are professional staff of our university; our guest lecturers are renowned experts in their field.

ENTERTAINMENT AND RECREATION FACILITIES IN SZEGED

In August Szeged is a rather warm, definitely summery place where water sports and beach facilities are vital for recreation. The city offers three large swimming pool complexes as well as nicely kept free beaches on the riverbank. The university fitness club, tennis courts, and jogging tracks can also be used by the participants of the program. In the cooler evenings many outdoor restaurants and cafés attract visitors but if the weather is too hot, one can also enjoy one of the 3 airconditioned multiplex cinemas.
