INTRODUCTION

The Graduate School of International Administration located at the Tokyo Kioicho Campus educates students to become professionals with the knowledge and skills to work on global issues that impact on, or result from the relationship among governments, businesses, and non-governmental organizations in the 21st century.

This admission guideline will help you complete the application procedures. Approximately 35 students are admitted to the program per year and courses are available in either Japanese or English.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must meet both educational and English language proficiency requirements.

Educational Requirements (either a or b):

- a) The completion of at least 16 years of education including a bachelor's degree.
- b) If an applicant has less than 16 years of education with one of the following conditions, he/she may be qualified to apply:
  - The completion of at least three years of tertiary-level education including a bachelor's degree. The JIU Admissions Assessment Committee will assess an applicant's eligibility upon his/her request.
  - 22 years-old or older with sufficient work experience as a researcher, an instructor at an academic institution or a specialist in the fields relevant to this Master's Program. The JIU Admissions Assessment Committee will assess an applicant's eligibility upon his/her request.

English Language Proficiency Requirements (either one of the following):

- TOEIC Listening & Reading 730 <https://www.ets.org/toeic>
- TOEFL iBT 80 / PBT 550 <https://www.ets.org/toefl>
- IELTS (Academic) 6.5 <http://www.ielts.org/>
- Or equivalent test scores

Notes:

1. The applicant's latest test score must be within two years prior to the application date.
2. For inquiries concerning an applicant's eligibility, contact the Admissions Office at 0475-55-8855 / admis\_e@jiu.ac.jp.
3. If any one of the above conditions cannot be met, an applicant may need to undertake the pre-assessment process before applying for the program. For further assistance, contact the Admissions Office.

ASSESSMENT OF APPLICATION

Assessment is conducted as shown below. The Admissions Office may contact the applicant's academic institutions to ensure the credibility of information provided, or request additional documents regarding academic background, transcripts, and language proficiency.

For applicants residing overseas:

- a) Document assessment
- b) An interview by phone or via online communication

For applicants residing in Japan:

- a) Document assessment
  - b) An interview
- ※ In an effort to prevent and minimize the spread of Covit19, it may be necessary to change interview method.

Notes:

1. There is a one-year completion program available for working professionals residing in Japan. The assessment takes place upon receipt of the documents. If applicants are not qualified to take the one-year program, they may be accepted on the regular two-year program.
2. Selection may take place in some countries of Asia in addition to Japan. Contact the Admissions Office at 0475-55-8855 / admis\_e@jiu.ac.jp to ensure the date and method of selection for your country of residence.

The above tuition fee (*1) is the regular tuition fee of 275,000 yen per semester. After applying the discount (30%), the amount is 192,500 yen per semester.
2. Those who have completed JIU's undergraduate programs may be exempted from the admission fee and the alumni association fee provided that those fees were already paid prior to the application date.
3. The fees shown on the table above exclude living expenses. Please note that this program is offered in Tokyo.

TUITION DISCOUNT FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

International applicants who do not receive any financial aid, such as a tuition waiver or a scholarship, and who study at JIU under a student visa may be eligible for a 30 percent discount on their tuition fee. The Tuition Discount Assessment Committee will decide on each application per academic year.

From second academic year on, the committee will assess an application every year. For this purpose, an application must be submitted for each academic year.

In case of failure to submit an application or incomplete submission of application documents, this partial tuition exemption may not be given.

Applicants who receive over 90,000 yen as monthly allowance are not qualified for this tuition discount. They will pay the full tuition amount instead.

Notes:

1. In order to receive the first academic year tuition discount, applicants residing in Japan must have a valid student visa at the time of application for admission.
2. In order to receive the first academic year tuition discount, applicants residing overseas must apply for a student visa upon admission.
3. For consultation of individual cases, contact the Admissions Office at 0475-55-8855 / admis\_e@jiu.ac.jp by the end of the application period. No consultation on first academic year discount application will be accepted thereafter.
